MAPS have not hitherto been much used to illustrate the labours of the Christian Community; while all other classes have called geographical delineation to their aid, this numerous, if not most important class, have allowed an Art to be neglected, the most palpable, and capable of giving at a glance operations so widely distributed.

The success that has attended the Author's Map illustrative of the operations of the Bible Society, induced him to project the present publication, and if it afford a congratulatory thought to those noble minds among his fellow countrymen, at whose instigation, and by whose exertions, the seeds of truth are sown amongst the benighted nations of the heathen world—if to the public, (whose magnificent benevolence poured into the treasury of Missionary Societies enables them to effect slow but lasting changes in pagan lands,) these sketches show what the Missionary Societies have done, and what remains to be done, and by exhibiting the triumph of the past, serve as an incentive to future exertions,—then the Author will feel most proud that he has been permitted to add his mite to the great work of Missionary enterprise.

The Author did at first intend that the work should be illustrated by Statistical Tables, containing a statement of the number of Missionaries, Communicants, Attendants, &c.—but inasmuch as the number of these persons is continually changing, while the locality of the station is the same, he has preserved the unity of his first design; and as the work is intended to be a companion to the reports of the Missionary Societies, and the accounts of the Missionaries, any addition to the Stations can easily be made upon the Maps, as they from time to time occur.

To the Rev. P. Latrobe of the Society of United Brethren, the Rev. W. Ellis and the Rev. J. Arundel of the London Missionary Society, the Rev. J. Dyer of the Baptist Missionary Society, the Rev. J. Beecham, the Rev. R. Alder, and the Rev. E. Hoole, of the Wesleyan Missionary Society, and the Rev. J. Burrowes of the European Missionary Society, the author begs to present his grateful thanks for the kind assistance they have rendered him in the compilation of the Maps.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The history of the United States of America is a story of growth and expansion. It begins with the first European settlers in the early 17th century, who established colonies along the Atlantic coast. These colonies grew and developed, and by the mid-18th century, the United States had become a powerful nation. The American Revolution (1775-1783) was a pivotal moment in the nation's history, as it led to the birth of the United States as an independent country. The Constitution was drafted in 1787, and the United States entered the 19th century as a young nation. The westward expansion of the United States was a major theme of the 19th century, as settlers moved westward in search of new opportunities. The Civil War (1861-1865) was a defining moment in the nation's history, as it led to the abolition of slavery and the preservation of the Union. The United States emerged from the Civil War as a more unified and powerful nation. The 20th century was a period of rapid change and growth for the United States. The United States became a world superpower, and its influence was felt around the globe. The United States played a leading role in the development of the world economy and the promotion of democracy. The United States has a rich and diverse history, and its story continues to unfold.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

CHAPTER I. THE DISCOVERY OF AMERICA. - The first voyage of Christopher Columbus to the West Indies in 1492, the discovery of the continent by Amerigo Vesputi in 1498, and the subsequent exploration of the continent by other European navigators.

CHAPTER II. THE SETTLEMENT OF AMERICA. - The first permanent European settlement in America, St. Augustine, Florida, in 1565, and the subsequent settlement of other parts of the continent.

The first permanent European settlement in America was St. Augustine, Florida, founded by Pedro Menéndez in 1565. Other early settlements followed, including Jamestown in 1607 and Plymouth in 1620.

CHAPTER III. THE STRUGGLE FOR INDEPENDENCE. - The American Revolution, from 1775 to 1783, and the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776.

The American Revolution was fought between the thirteen original colonies and Great Britain. The colonies declared their independence in 1776 and won the war in 1783. The Constitution was signed in 1787.

CHAPTER IV. THE WESTERN EXPLORATION. - The exploration of the western part of the continent by Lewis and Clark, 1793-1806, and the discovery of gold in California in 1848.

The Lewis and Clark expedition (1793-1806) was the first overland journey from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The discovery of gold in California in 1848 led to the California Gold Rush.

CHAPTER V. THE CIVIL WAR. - The American Civil War, from 1861 to 1865, and the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation in 1862.

The American Civil War was fought between the Union and the Confederacy. It ended in 1865 with the Union's victory. The Emancipation Proclamation was issued in 1862.

CHAPTER VI. THE RECONSTRUCTION. - The Reconstruction of the South, from 1865 to 1877, and the signing of the Reconstruction Act in 1867.

The Reconstruction period followed the Civil War. It aimed to rebuild the South and integrate freed slaves. The Reconstruction Act was passed in 1867.

CHAPTER VII. THE GROWTH OF THE UNION. - The acquisition of new territories, including Texas, Oregon, and California, and the signing of the Compromise of 1850.

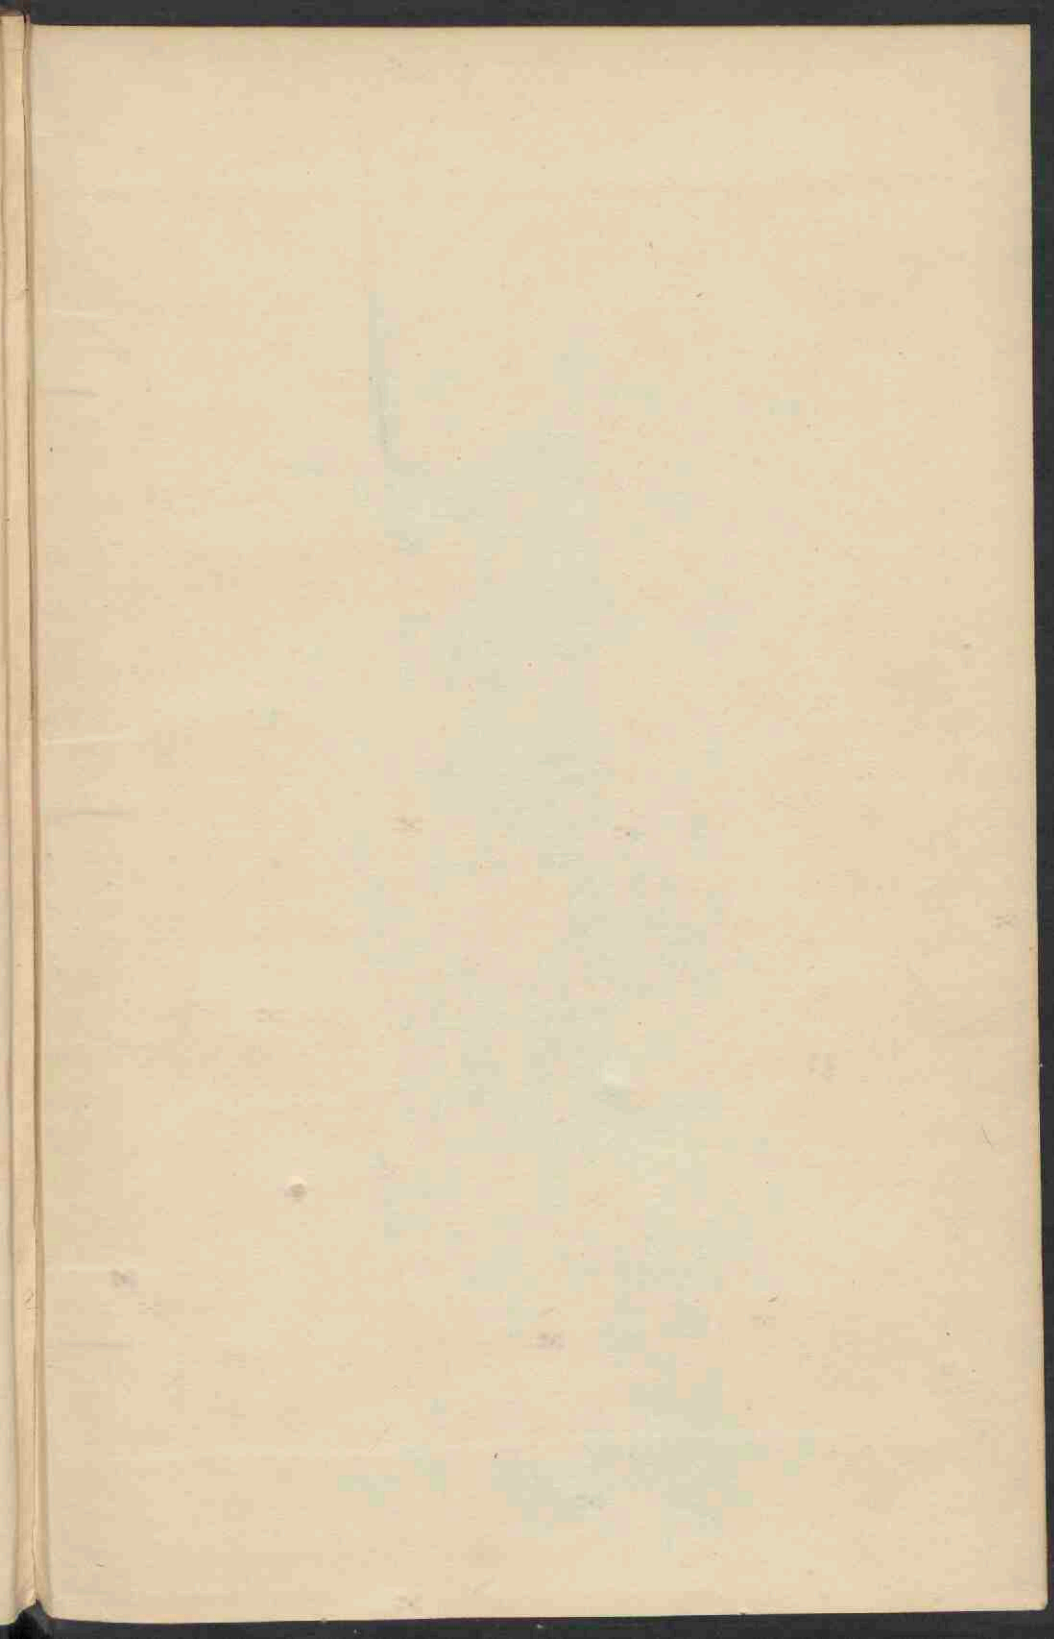

The United States acquired new territories through purchase and conquest. The Compromise of 1850 resolved disputes over the territories.

CHAPTER VIII. THE GROWTH OF THE UNION. - The acquisition of new territories, including Texas, Oregon, and California, and the signing of the Compromise of 1850.

The United States acquired new territories through purchase and conquest. The Compromise of 1850 resolved disputes over the territories.

CHAPTER IX. THE GROWTH OF THE UNION. - The acquisition of new territories, including Texas, Oregon, and California, and the signing of the Compromise of 1850.

The United States acquired new territories through purchase and conquest. The Compromise of 1850 resolved disputes over the territories.
