The first of these is the fact that the number of cases is increasing rapidly.
 This is due to the fact that the disease is highly contagious and is easily spread from person to person. It is also highly infectious and can be spread by contact with the infected person's secretions. The disease is also highly fatal and can be spread by contact with the infected person's
